What is a Last Will & Testament?

A Last Will and Testament is a legal document that communicates a person's final wishes before they pass. It provides specific instructions for assets, guardianship, and how you'd like to be cared for.

Who Needs a Last Will & Testament?

If you're married, have children, or own anything valuable, you need a Will to save your loved ones of time and money during an already difficult time.

What Happens if I don't Have a Last Will & Testament?

If you die intestate, your local probate court will decide how to distribute your assets. The court will attempt to mimic your final wishes, however, your actual wishes remain unknown.

What is an Advanced Care Directive?

Advance directives are a series legal documents that provide instructions for medical care that come into effect if you cannot communicate your own wishes.

Who Needs This Document? Everyone. At any age, a medical crisis could leave you unable to communicate your own health care decisions.

What Happens if I Don't Have This Document? If you do not have an advance directive included in your estate plan, you'll be unable to make medical decisions on your own behalf.

What is a Power of Attorney?

A Power of Attorney is a legal document that allows someone else to act on another's behalf in private affairs, business, or some other legal matter.

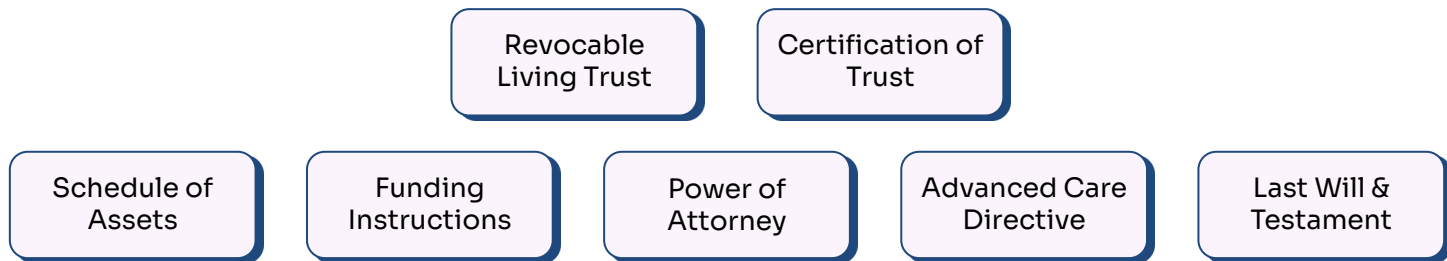

Who Needs a POA? Anyone who wants to permit another person to perform certain legal or financial acts on his or her behalf needs a Power of Attorney included in their estate plan.

What Happens If I Don't Have a POA? Without a POA, the court will appoint someone to take care of your medical, legal, and financial decisions for you.

What is a Trust?

Trusts includes state-specific documents that make the estate planning process easier, allowing you to designate guardians for your children, record your assets, and communicate any wishes have in the event of a medical emergency.

When Does a Trust Become Effective? A Trust takes effect during your lifetime. It allows you to manage and control your assets while you're alive and ensures they are distributed according to your wishes after your death, all while bypassing probate court.

How Long Will it Take to Complete my Trust?

It takes most people about 20 minutes to complete their Trust with FastWill.
